

TADMAN

PROLOGUE:

In the beginning of time, all of the gods fought to claim the planet Graath as their own.

DRAWN BY:
RICH BEARDSLEY

It was a short battle. Only lasted a few millennia.

But a victor was inevitable. The great and mighty Mangda finally triumphed with help from his mystical Vormanu Sphere

One day he noticed that his Vormanu Sphere was missing.

He looked all over the planes of existence.

But it was nowhere to be found.

Sad and depressed,
Mangda went home.
